

SEP 17 1952

The Honorable W. Sterling Cole,
Post Office Building
Ithaca, New York

Dear Mr. Cole:

Thank you for your letter of 27 August 1952, addressed to Mr. William H. Jackson, regarding [redacted] application for employment with this Agency. Mr. Jackson has left CIA, and Mr. Allen W. Dulles is the present Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

Our letters, dated 3 June and 12 August 1952, which [redacted] received were not in fact notices of appointment, but rather reports on the processing of her application. We shall contact [redacted] immediately upon completion of this processing, which should be in the near future. We shall also be glad to advise you of the final determination at that time.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
